Sign up for the final CESSDA Roadshow events

You can still sign up for the next stops on the CESSDA Roadshow:

- 21 October: Cancer and Chronic Disease
- 28 October: Circular Economy.

The term "circular economy" refers to reducing, reusing and recycling to minimise further damage to the environment.

The slides and recordings from the roadshows are being published as they become available. Check out the resources below!

The vision of Stein Rokkan and the origins of the NSD

Among many other things, Stein Rokkan was one of the prominent drivers of the international and national social science data archive movement, which he considered a foundation for empirical research. NSD was planned as such a foundation, both for his own future research and for social research in Norway in general. This article, published on the NSD website, was written on the occasion of NSD's 50th anniversary.
